Joint Simplified Dissolution of Marriage

Information and Instructions

Linda S. Frank

Clerk of the Sixth Judicial Circuit Court

Urbana, Illinois 61801

This brochure is being provided to you along with the necessary forms for filing a Joint Simplified Petition for Dissolution of Marriage. This type of dissolution procedure is not for everyone - there are limitations on, among other items, the length of marriage, the amount of property owned and the income of the parties. You should read this brochure carefully to see if this procedure is available to you. This brochure also includes general information on dissolutions of marriages and instructions for completing forms.

GENERAL INFORMATION CONCERNING DISSOLUTIONS OF MARRIAGES

A dissolution of marriage (commonly referred to as a divorce) is a serious legal step which should not be taken without considerable thought. If you are considering such a proceeding, you should note the following:

- It is in the best interests of each of the parties to consult attorneys regarding the dissolution of their marriage. The services of attorneys may be obtained.
- You should not rely exclusively on this brochure. This brochure is intended only as a guide for self-representation.
- Marriage counseling services are available to you in your community. Your Circuit Clerk can provide you with a list of the services available.
- If you use this Joint Simplified proceeding, you will lose any right you may have to maintenance (commonly known as alimony). Once you lose the right to maintenance in a legal proceeding, you can never again obtain maintenance from your former husband or wife.
- A Judgement of dissolution of marriage (divorce) permanently settles all financial rights arising out of your marriage, including the right to property held in the name of your husband or wife and the right to support from your husband or wife. A Judgement entered in a dissolution proceeding is final. You will have no right to appeal. Such a Judgement may only be set aside on grounds of fraud, duress, accident, mistake, or other grounds at law on inequity.
- You and your spouse remain married and cannot remarry until a Judgment dissolving your marriage is signed by the Judge.

WHO MAY USE THE JOINT SIMPLIFIED DISSOLUTION OF MARRIAGE PROCEDURE?

To use the Joint Simplified Dissolution of Marriage procedure, the following must apply to you and your spouse.

- Irreconcilable differences have caused the irretrievable breakdown of your marriage. All efforts at reconciliation of the differences have failed and future attempts at reconciliation would not be in the best interest of you and your spouse.
- You and your spouse must have lived separate and apart for at least six months and you must be willing to waive the requirement for a two year separation before obtaining a dissolution on the grounds of irreconcilable differences.
- You must have been married less than eight (8) years and either you or your spouse (or both) must have lived in the State of Illinois for at least ninety (90) days immediately prior to filing for the dissolution.
- No children were born to or adopted by you and your spouse during your relationship and the wife is not now pregnant.
- Your joint annual gross income from all sources must be less than $35,000.00 (and neither is over $20,000.00). The total value of marital property you and your spouse own, less any encumbrances (amount owed on the property, such as the amount owed on a car loan), must be less than $10,000.00. Neither you nor your spouse may own any real estate.
- You and your spouse each must be willing to permanently give up any right to maintenance (alimony).
- You and your spouse must have disclosed to each other all assets each of you might have, and disclosed all tax returns filed during your marriage.
- You and your spouse must sign a written agreement dividing between yourselves all marital assets worth more than $100.00 and dividing responsibility for all debts and liabilities. You must divide the property and sign and exchange all documents (such as automobile titles, etc.) necessary to carry out the agreement before any court hearing.
- You and your spouse must waive any right you may have to a bifurcated hearing on your dissolution petition (a hearing held in two parts, one to decide the issues related to granting the dissolution and another to decide any property or other issues).

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING THE FORMS

There are four forms which must be completed for obtaining a Joint Simplified Dissolution of Marriage. All of these forms have been drafted to be self-explanatory and as easy to complete as possible.

Forms: Affidavit in Support of Joint Petition for Simplified Dissolution of Marriage

Joint Affidavit for Simplified Dissolution of Marriage Agreement as to Assets and Debts

Joint Petition for Simplified Dissolution of Marriage

Judgement for Simplified Dissolution of Marriage

With all four forms, you should either type the necessary information or neatly print the information in ink. Fill out all forms completely. Your Circuit Clerk will insert the case number ("No.") on the Petition and Judgement.

The “Joint Affidavit for Simplified Dissolution of Marriage Agreement as to Assets and Debts” must be signed in front of a Notary Public. You should file a copy of your written agreement dividing marital assets, debts and liabilities at the time you file the Petition.

The “Judgement for Simplified Dissolution of Marriage” need not be signed in front of a Notary, but should be completed and signed by both parties (below the words “Approved and Agreed”) before your hearing. The Judge will complete the “Enter” line and sign the Judgement if the dissolution is granted.

If the wife wishes to return to her maiden or former name, you should complete section C. of the PETITION and section F. of the JUDGEMENT.

In addition to these four forms, the Circuit Clerk will give you a Certificate of Dissolution of Marriage which you must complete.

Other than providing this brochure and these forms, Circuit Clerks are prohibited by law from giving any legal advice.

JUDGMENT FOR SIMPLIFIED DISSOLUTION OF MARRIAGE

This cause was heard on the parties' Joint Petition for Simplified Dissolution of Marriage, both parties appearing in person. The Court, having jurisdiction of the parties and the subject matter and after examination of the Petition and the parties, FINDS the parties' marriage registration and marital circumstances are as follows:

MARRIAGE DATE	CITY	COUNTY	STATE	SEPARATION DATE

THE COURT FINDS:

- (a) One or both parties have met the residency requirement of Section 401 of the Illinois Marriage and Dissolution of Marriage Act.
- (b) At filing, the duration of the marriage did not exceed 8 years.
- (c) Irreconcilable differences have caused the irretrievable breakdown of the marriage and parties have been separated 6 months or more. Efforts at reconciliation have failed or future attempts at reconciliation would be impracticable and not in the best interests of the family.
- (d) No children were born of the relationship of the parties or adopted by the parties during the marriage, and the Wife, to her knowledge, is not pregnant by the Husband.
- (e) Neither party is dependent on the other party for support or each party is willing to waive the right to support. Each party understands that prior consultation with an attorney may have helped to determine eligibility for spousal support.
- (f) Each party has waived any rights to spousal support.
- (g) Neither party has any interest in real estate.
- (h) The total fair market value of all mutual property, after deducting all debts owed, is less than $10,000. The total annual income of both parties from all sources is less than $35,000, and neither is over $20,000.
- (i) The parties have disclosed to each other all assets and tax returns for all years of the marriage.

- (j) The parties have executed a written Agreement dividing all assets in excess of $100 in value and allocating responsibility for debts and liabilities between themselves. A copy of the Joint Agreement, filed with the Joint Petition, has been reviewed by the Court and is not unconscionable.

WHEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED:

- A. A Judgment of Dissolution of Marriage is awarded to the parties and the marriage existing between them is hereby dissolved.
- B. Spousal maintenance is terminated and forever barred.
- C. Each party shall earn income and own personal property in his/her own name, possession or control free and clear of any claims of the other.
- D. Each party shall be solely liable for any debts he/she may personally incur and neither shall be liable for any debt or liability incurred by the other.
- E. The written Agreement filed with the Joint Petition is incorporated into this Judgment.
- F. (OPTIONAL) The Wife is restored to her former name of
