WHEREAS, Vermilion County appropriates an amount each year for transfer from the General Fund to the Department of Animal Regulation to help cover some of the costs of operation for Animal Control; and

WHEREAS, the Department of Animal Regulation had some larger than expected costs associated with the assumption of Animal Control in the City of Danville, which from this point on should be covered mostly by their increased fees; and

WHEREAS, the Department has also seized a quantity of large animals that must be boarded, and have veterinary care until disposition of the legal case, which is also affecting their cash flow dramatically; and

WHEREAS, the Department of Animal Regulation is now experiencing cash flow problems, and need to have additional money transferred from the General Fund to help with this issue and allow for continued operations of the Department and payment of their bills; and

WHEREAS, these issues were unknown at the time the budget was prepared and now the amounts must now be budgeted in the FY 2014-2015 budget in order for these funds to be transferred;
