AGENCY REPORTS

WorkSource: Frank Brunacci stated WorkSource has chosen to discontinue the state supported employment program due to state budget cuts; however the school age program will continue due to funding from the 708 Board. Mr. Brunacci also informed the board the rest area will be closing in two weeks but will have one staff member remain by request of the state for the construction workers.

Prairie Center: Susan Perkins updated the board regarding Prairie Center stats, adding Prairie Center is fully staffed at this time. Ms. Perkins also informed the board they have been seeing an increase in attendance at the NA meetings.

Hoopeston Multi-Agency: Dana Schaumburg updated the board regarding Hoopeston Multi-Agency stats. Mrs. Schaumburg also informed the board about upcoming flu shot clinic and LIHEAP dates to be held at the agency. Mrs. Schaumburg states she would like to see NA/AA groups and counseling services come to the Hoopeston area.

Crosspoint: Thom Pollock informed the board Crosspoint has received suspended payments from the state which has brought their credit line back to a zero balance. Mr. Pollock also stated due to the great response of Crosspoint providing counseling services to District 118 students, Hoopeston has requested to have services brought to their area as well.

Kleppin & Associates: Mike Kleppin updated the board regarding the Juvenile Detention counseling stats.

Complex Service Planning: Jeri updated the board of active client stats. Jeri also shared two success stories regarding families that have now been connected to the resources they needed. Jim and Jeri will be meeting with the administrators from the area schools on 10/26/2017 to share what the Complex Service Planning program is about in hopes of creating a more positive connection to the school districts.
