Step 5: Objectives and Steps

1. 2. To encourage Black or African American females to apply for vacancies in the Administrative Services categories

- a. a. The Human Resources Department will review the applicant pool for all vacancies in this job category in the last fiscal year to determine whether African American or Black female applicants were under-represented
- b. b. The Human Resources Department will conduct a workforce analysis to determine which County offices may be underutilizing African American or Black females in this category
- c. c. The Human Resources Department will conduct interviews with department heads in the departments determined to have possibly underutilized African American or Black females in this category to determine if the selection process had any impact on screening out African American or Black female applicants
- d. d. The Human Resources Department will enhance recruitment efforts to target African American or Black females in this category by attending local job fairs and advertising vacancies on the following websites: Vermilion County, Danville Area Community College, the Illinois Department of Employment Security Job Link, Vermilion Advantage Job Board, and other practicable options

2. 1. To encourage White males and American Indian or Alaska Native males to apply for vacancies in the Administrative Services and Non-Sworn Protective Services categories

- a. a. The HRD will review the applicant pool for all vacancies in these job categories in the last fiscal year to determine whether White and American Indian or Alaska Native male applicants were under-represented.
- b. b. The HRD will conduct a workforce analysis to determine which County offices may be underutilizing White and American Indian or Alaskan native males in these categories.
- c. c. The Human Resources Department will conduct interviews with department heads in the departments determined to have possibly underutilized White and American Indian or Alaskan Native males in these categories to determine if the selection process had any impact on screening out White and American Indian or Alaskan Native male applicants.
- d. d.
