Neopost is now Quadient

Dear Customer,

Today, every business transaction – from mail to e-commerce – is an opportunity to make a meaningful connection. To make an impact on someone's life. To turn a customer into an advocate. As of February 24, 2020, Neopost has rebranded to Quadient. This change signifies the unification of our global organization around a common purpose, focusing on the future and our customers.

Quadient is the driving force behind the world's most meaningful customer experiences. By focusing on four key solution areas including Customer Experience Management, Business Process Automation, Mail-Related Solutions, and Parcel Locker Solutions, Quadient helps simplify the connection between people and what matters. Under this newly structured organization, we continue our commitment to delivering exceptional experiences to our clients and their customers.

As part of this evolution, our company name has changed from "Neopost USA Inc." to "Quadient, Inc."

You will find a W-9 for Quadient, Inc. included with this note for your convenience. Please remember to update your records accordingly and address all future business correspondence to our new company name. All purchase orders from this point forward should use our new name. Other than the company name, all other details, including current contracts and existing agreements, remain unchanged.

If you have any questions regarding your account, visit us at www.myquadient.com or chat with us at www.quadient.com.

For more information visit: www.quadient.com/connections.

Thank you for your business and continued loyalty.

Sincerely,

Alain Fairise

President and COO, North America

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Future developments. For the latest information about developments related to Form W-9 and its instructions, such as legislation enacted after they were published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW9.

Purpose of Form

An Individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) which may be your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN), to report on an information return the amount paid to you, or other amount reportable on an information return. Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following.

. Form 1099-INT (Interest earned or paid)

- Form 1099-DIV (dividends, including those from stocks or mutual funds)
- Form 1099-MISC (various types of income, prizes, awards, or gross proceeds)
- Form 1099-B (stock or mutual fund sales and certain other transactions by brokers)
- Form 1099-S (proceeds from real estate transactions)
- Form 1099-K (merchant card and third party network transactions)
- Form 1098 (home mortgage interest), 1098-E (student loan interest), 1098-T (tuition)
- Form 1099-C (canceled debt)
- Form 1099-A (acquisition or abandonment of secured property) Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident allen), to provide your correct TIN.

If you do not return Form W-9 to the requester with a TIN, you might be subject to backup withholding. See What is backup withholding, later.
