 PRESS RELEASE *****

The Vermilion County State's Attorney's Office collected items for the Fifth Annual Domestic Violence Awareness Month Supply Drive to benefit the Crosspoint at the Y Domestic Violence and Transitional Shelter. Through partnerships with the Country Financial offices of Alan Puzey, Amanda Galloway, Stevenson Harby, Pete Goodwin, Chris Griffin and Patrick Williams, the supply drive was a great success.

Donations collected this year included non-perishable food items, diapers, personal care items and handmade hats and scarves. The items were delivered to the shelter on November 14, 2022 by State's Attorney Jacqueline Lacy and her staff.

"I would like to thank the people of Vermilion County for their generous donations, the partnering Country Financial agents, as well as Crosspoint Human Services Executive Director Lisa Rhodes, for their participation as we work to raise awareness for survivors, and spread the message that violence has no place in healthy relationships." Jacqueline M Lacy, Vermilion County State's Attorney.
