AGREEMENT

This Agreement is entered into 17th day of August 2022, by and between the Chief Judge of the 5th Judicial Circuit and Vermilion County Circuit Clerk, hereinafter referred to jointly and collectively as the “Employer”, and International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, Local #21, AFL-CIO, hereinafter referred to as the “Union.” The Union members ratified this contract on the 11th of August 2022.

Inasmuch as the Parties desire to establish and to set forth in writing the terms and conditions under which the Employees shall work during the term of this Agreement, to secure harmonious cooperation in the relations between the Parties, and to provide means for the peaceful settlement of disputes, it is agreed as follows:

ARTICLE ONE

RECOGNITION

1.01 In accordance with the Certifications of the Illinois State Labor Relations Board in Case Number S-RC-90-20, incorporated by reference herein, the Employer recognizes the Union as the exclusive representative of all the Employees in the Bargaining Unit set forth below, for purposes of collective bargaining with respect to rates of pay, hours of employment, and other terms and conditions of employment.

Included: All Full-time and regular Part-time Employees of the Employer, in the job titles of Bailiff, Court Security Officer, Legal Secretary I, Legal Secretary II, Probation Officer, Judicial Court Clerk I and Judicial Court Clerk II.

Excluded: Officer Manager, Court Administrator, Court Stenographer, Chief Probation Officer, Deputy Chief Probation Officer, Supervisor, Jury Commission Coordinator, Administrative Assistant, intermittent Part-time, confidential, managerial and supervisory Employees as defined by the Act and All other Employees of the Employer.

1.02 In the event that any new or different classifications of Employees not listed above as being within the bargaining unit of this Agreement, or, in the event that the duties and responsibilities of any of the classifications listed above are changed; and, the Parties are unable within a brief and reasonable period of time to determine whether it is appropriate and consistent with the Certification and with Article One either to include or to exclude such classification in the bargaining unit, then the Parties shall seek a clarification of such issues from the State Labor Relations Board.

ARTICLE TWO

RIGHTS RESERVED BY THE EMPLOYER

2.01 Except as limited by the express language of this Agreement, subject to the general administrative and supervisory authority of the Illinois Supreme court, the Employer retains and reserves the sole and exclusive rights to manage and to control its properties and its operations; and to manage its business affairs; to direct its Employees, including the exclusive rights to hire, to assign, to transfer, to promote, to demote, to layoff, to recall, to evaluate performance, to determine qualifications, to discipline, to discharge for just cause, to make, modify, and enforce rules and regulations, to establish and effectuate policies and procedures, to set standards of performance, to determine the number of Employees, the duties to be performed, and hours and locations of work; to establish, change, or abolish positions, to discontinue any function; to sub-contract, to create any new service or function; to make any technological changes; to install in the work force, or whether such action requires an assignment of additional, or fewer, or permanently close all or any portion of its facilities and/or to relocate such facilities or any operations. Provided, that the foregoing rights may not be exercised in a manner which is in conflict with explicit provisions of this Agreement. Provided, further, that sub-contracting of bargaining unit work shall not have the effect of displacing bargaining-unit Employees in the offices of the Circuit Clerk. If sub-contracting of bargaining unit work will have the effect of displacing bailiffs, the Employer agrees to provide the Union with thirty days notice and, upon Union request, to discuss the matter with the Union.

The rights expressly reserved by this Article Two are merely illustrations of and are not inclusive of all the rights retained by the Employer. Rights reserved by management may not be exercised in a manner which conflicts directly with other express and explicit provisions of this Agreement.

The rights set forth above, and any all rights, powers, authorities, and prerogatives the Employer had before entering into this Agreement are retained and reserved by the Employer unless expressly and explicitly waived herein.

The Employer reserves the right to assign to or to allow Statutory Supervisors to perform any work for the Employer.

ARTICLE THREE

NO STRIKES, NO LOCKOUTS

3.01 During the term of this Agreement, there shall be no strikes, slow-downs, stoppages of work or interference in any form with work or operations for any reason, cause, or purpose during the term of this Agreement. The Union also expressly waives, for the term of this Agreement, any right to strike over matters which are not subject to the Grievance and/or Arbitration procedures of this Agreement, including any sympathy strikes.

3.02 Any Employee who engages in any strike, slowdown, stoppage of work, or interference with production or operations, including any wildcat or sympathy strike, during the term of this Agreement shall be subject to immediate discharge, and shall have no rights or recourse under this Agreement. Stewards, Committeemen, and all Employees who hold any office or position with the Union occupy a position of special trust and responsibility in maintaining and bringing about compliance with this provision. This provision shall not prevent any IBEW Local 21 Area Steward or Chief Steward from honoring any legal picket line conducted by IBEW 21; provided there shall be only one union representative covered by this exception.

3.03 There shall be no lockout of the Employees by the Employer during the term of this Agreement.

ARTICLE FOUR DISPUTE RESOLUTION: DISCIPLINE AND DISCHARGE,
GRIEVANCE, MEDIATION, AND ARBITRATION PROCEDURE

A. DISCIPLINE AND DISCHARGE

04.01 Special work standards or rules in addition to those established by this contract may be established by the Employer in each department, or by the County in its personnel policy. However, no policy, standard or work rule(s) may conflict with the provisions of this contract. No employee may be disciplined for a violation of any policy, work rules, or standard unless the Employee and the Union have been advised in writing of such policies and rules. Such notice shall be given to any steward of the union representing the department or office instituting the work rule or policy. Any such additional policies or rules shall be in written form and be on file with the Human Resources Director.

Any discipline imposed upon any Employee shall be done in a manner that will not embarrass the Employee.

04.02 In the event Employer contemplates the dismissal for just cause of any employee, it is recommended that the Employer notify the employee and IBEW Business Manager or appointed designee of the Local Union involved and review the facts with the Business Manager and employee as soon as practicable prior to the actual dismissal. The meeting to discuss the dismissal shall be conducted with due regard for the safety of the participants of the meeting whenever either party determines the need for such security. Because the Employer may not know prior to a meeting that discharge will be the result of any discipline meeting the procedure of this section 4.02 shall not be a subject to the grievance procedure of this contract by the Union. If the employer believes it necessary for the operations of the office or reasonable safety concerns, the employee may be suspended pending a meeting with the employee and the Union. Such a suspension may be with or without pay depending on the result of any discipline imposed after review and discussion with the Union, but in no event shall be longer than three business days from notice to the Union. Within that time frame the employer, employee and Union shall meet to discuss a contemplated discharge. If a meeting between employee, the employer and the Union is not practical for any reason, the employee and the Union will be given a written statement of just cause for the discipline. If after the meeting of the employer, employee and the Union, or if a meeting is not held then after submission of written notice of discipline, the Union may elect to advance the matter to the grievance procedure as may be appropriate in this Article or withdraw the grievance without setting precedent.

B. GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

04.03 A grievance is defined as a complaint by an employee that a particular provision of this Agreement has been violated, or any non-contractual disagreement between any employee and management. The grievance and arbitration procedure set forth herein, and any other such procedure shall expire, become null and void, and shall not be enforceable after the expiration date of this Agreement.

04.04 If a grievance arises, it shall be handled in the following manner:

a) Disciplinary action by the Employer shall be taken within fifteen (15) calendar days after the Employer becomes aware of the act of omission which is the basis for the disciplinary action. Any employee having a grievance shall first discuss the matter with the immediate supervisor. If it is not settled promptly, the Employee may grieve as follows:

b) The grievant or his representative must set forth in writing the facts involved and the specific provision(s) of the Agreement (if any) alleged to be violated within fifteen (15) calendar days after the employee knew or should have known of the event giving rise to the grievance. This written grievance shall be signed by the Employee and/or his representative, and shall be submitted to the Employer. Within fifteen (15) calendar days after receipt of the grievance, the Employer's representative shall answer the grievance in writing.

c) If the answer of the Employer or its representative is not acceptable to the Union, the grievance shall be appealed to the Human Resource Director in writing no later than 14 calendar days after the Employer's answer. The Human Resource Director or his/her designee will meet with the Business Representative of the Union or his/her designee as early as practicable but within 30 days of mailing of the written appeal by the Union. The parties will mutually agree on a date and time for the meeting. A meeting at any step of the procedure may be recessed or reconvened at a later date if the Parties mutually agree. Either party may bring persons to the meeting to aid in the resolution or discussion of the grievance. The Human Resource Director will provide an answer in writing within 14 calendar days after the meeting.

d) If said answer is not acceptable to the Union, the grievance (if it pertains to the alleged violation of a particular provision of the Agreement) may be submitted to Arbitration if either party submits written Notice of Intent to Arbitrate by Certified Mail within forty-five (45) calendar days after the date of the Employer's answer.

While Arbitration of the dispute is pending, the grievance (if it pertains to the alleged violation of a particular provision of this Agreement) will be submitted to mediation pursuant to the below procedures upon the request of either party.

e) Failure of either party to comply with the time limits specified herein shall be construed to be an abandonment of the position taken on the grievance by the party failing to comply with said time limits. The time limits set forth in this Article may be waived only and without exception by written mutual agreement between the parties.

f) By mutual written agreement of the employer and the employee as represented by the union, grievances may be filed at the appropriate advanced step. Grievances may be withdrawn at any time by written agreement of the parties. If the parties agree in writing, the withdrawal of a grievance shall set no precedence for future practices or grievances.

g) The union may request from the employer copies of the specific documents relative to the grievance under consideration. Such request shall not be denied so long as (A) The request is made in a timely way giving the employer reasonable time to locate and copy such documents; (B) The request does not pertain to documents considered confidential by law or constitute an unwarranted violation of privacy as defined under the freedom of information act. However, if the concern regarding confidentiality or privacy can be reasonably resolved by redacting documents or obtaining appropriate consent, the requested documents shall be provided. If a dispute arises due to privacy of confidentiality concern, the department head or their delegate, the union and the Human Resources Director or designee shall meet to resolve the dispute.

4.05 Union business shall be handled by Stewards or other Union members only while off duty, unless mutually agreed otherwise, or pursuant to the procedures set forth in Article Ten, below.

C. MEDIATION PROCEDURE

4.06 If a Grievance is to be submitted to mediation, the Mediator shall either be appointed by the appropriate Federal Mediation and Conciliation Office or be selected by agreement between the Employer and the Union. When the parties fail to agree upon a Mediator within five (5) working days after agreement to mediate, the Union or the Parties, jointly, shall promptly request a list of seven (7) names from the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service. The decision to choose will be made by the party requesting mediation.

4.07 The mediation hearing shall be conducted by the Mediator, at mutually agreeable times and places, or, following agreement of the parties, at times and places designated by the Mediator.

4.08 In conducting the hearing, the Mediator shall not be bound by rules of evidence or procedural rules, and the Parties shall be allowed, subject to the governance of the Mediator, to present their respective facts and arguments as they see fit.

4.09 At the conclusion of the hearing, the Mediator may attempt to obtain a compromise between the Parties, and may, in conjunction with such efforts, give the Parties an advisory settlement proposal, which may advise the parties of the ruling the Mediator would expect if the matter were to be submitted to Arbitration and the reasons therefore, on the basis of the facts presented, the applicable contract provisions, and the positions of the Parties.

4.10 The opinion of the Mediator shall be advisory. If it is or is not accepted by the Parties, it shall not be admissible evidence in, and it shall be forever excluded from, any subsequent Arbitral, Administrative, or Judicial Proceeding.

4.11 Each party will pay its own participants and its own witnesses. The Parties will share equally only the fee and expenses of the Mediator, and the cost, if any, of the hearing room. Grievances which do not pertain to the alleged violation of particular provisions of this Agreement are not subject to Mediation, even though such grievances may have been entertained by the Parties in other steps of the procedures set forth in this ARTICLE FOUR.

D. ARBITRATION PROCEDURE

4.12 If either Party submits a Grievance to Arbitration, the Arbitrator shall be selected by agreement between the Employer and the Union. When the parties fail to agree upon an arbitrator within five (5) working days after agreement to arbitrate, the Union or the Parties, jointly, shall promptly request a list of seven (7) names from the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service. Either Party may reject the first, and request a second list of seven (7) more names, after prompt notice to the other Party. Each Party shall alternately strike names, the moving Party striking first, from the list employed by the Parties until one (1) name remains, which shall be the Arbitrator selected.

4.13 The Arbitrator shall have no power to add to or to subtract from or to alter or modify any of the express terms of this Agreement, or to ignore or to imply any term or provision. Within the foregoing limitations, the decision of the Arbitrator on the Grievance submitted shall be final and binding. Grievances which do not pertain to the alleged violation of particular provisions of this Agreement are not subject to Arbitration, even though such Grievances may have been entertained by the Parties in other steps of the procedures set forth in this ARTICLE FOUR.

4.14 Each party will pay its own participants and its own witnesses. The Parties will share equally only the fee and expenses of the Arbitrator and the cost, if any, of the hearing room and reporter.

ARTICLE FIVE

DEFINITIONS

When used in this Agreement, the following terms will be construed to have the following meaning:

5.01 The term "Regular full-time Employee" shall be construed to mean non-probationary persons who are included in the bargaining unit represented by the Union and are regularly scheduled to work (28) or more hours per week.

5.02 The term "Short-term" Employee shall be as defined in the Act, an Employee who is employed for less than two consecutive calendar quarters during a calendar year and who does not have reasonable assurances that he/she will be re-hired by the same Employer for the same service in a subsequent calendar year. The Employer shall have the right to employ Short-term Employees to perform any work required. Such Employees shall not cause the lay-off of Regular Employees and shall be entitled to no benefits in addition to the payment of their wages for times when they are actually employed and working.

5.03 The term "Regular part-time Employee" shall be construed to include those non-probationary persons who are regularly scheduled to work less than twenty eight (28) hours in a regular work week.

ARTICLE SIX

SENIORITY

6.01 For purposes of benefit accrual, seniority shall be defined as each Employee's length of continuous service with the county since his or her last date of hire. For all other purposes, seniority shall be defined as an Employee's length of continuous service within his or her office or department since his or her last date of hire.

6.02 All new or rehired, reassigned, or promoted Employees shall be required to serve a probationary period of at least 180 calendar days. However, all Employees will be entitled to accrue PTO upon completion of 90 days of employment.

Reassigned or promoted Employees who have previously completed a probationary period in another position of classification within the same office or department shall, upon the mutual agreement of the Employer and Union, be returned to their former classification with no loss of seniority any time during their new probation period due to the inability to perform the duties and responsibilities of their new position. Promoted Employees who successfully complete the new probation period shall receive the rate of pay for the new position retroactive to the beginning of the probation period.

Employees serving a probationary period in the Probation Office or in the Circuit Clerk's office shall receive a written performance evaluation no later than sixty calendar days after the beginning of their probationary period. Such Employees may not be returned to their original classification unless they have received an evaluation advising them of deficiencies and have had the opportunity to make appropriate corrections.

6.03 During the probationary period, each Employee's suitability for employment beyond such period shall be evaluated by the Employer. The Employer shall retain the unqualified right to terminate the employment of any probationary Employee at any time without prior notice or assignment of reasons. No probationary Employee shall have any rights or recourse under this Agreement, in regard to the termination of his or her employment.

6.04 The Employer shall annually post a seniority list by office or department, and shall notify the Union no later than the close business of the next working day that the posting has been done. Employees shall have ten (10) working days after the posting of the first list containing their names, to object to their seniority standing, or the date will be considered forever to be correct and binding upon the Employees and the Union. Upon request, a current seniority list will be sent to the Union.

6.05 For the purpose of any notice required herein, each Employee shall be responsible for having his current address and telephone number on file with the Employer.

6.06 An Employee shall forfeit his or her seniority and status as an Employee:

a) If he or she quits, is discharged, is otherwise terminated, or retires.

b) If he or she performs no work for the Employer for a period of twelve (12) months, or a period equal to his or her seniority, whichever is shorter, less any concurrent period of paid absence or unpaid leave of absence; or any temporary period of absence because of an injury or illness arising from his or her employment with the Employer and covered by the Workers Compensation Act.

c) If he or she fails to report for work within ten (10) calendar days after notice of recall is mailed to his or her address of record, pursuant to Section 06.07 below.

d) If he or she fails to return to work at the end of a leave of absence or vacation, unless such failure was due to a reason beyond the Employee's control.

e) If he or she is absent from work for three (3) working days without notice to his or her immediate supervisor within a 24-month period unless circumstances prohibited the Employee from providing such notice. However, nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to limit the Employer's right to discharge an Employee for excessive absence or tardiness.

6.07 In the event that it becomes necessary to lay off Employees for any reason, the Employer shall notify the Union and negotiate the planned lay off. If an agreement is not reached, then they shall be laid off in the inverse order of their seniority, within Office or Department and Classification after temporary, casual, and probationary Employees. In the event of recall, Employees shall be recalled in order of their seniority, within their Departments or Office and Classifications. No new Employees shall be hired into a Classification, Office, or Department until all Employees on layoff from such Offices, or Departments, and Classifications desiring to return to work have been offered recall to such Offices, or Departments, and Classifications. Employees to be recalled will be sent a notice of recall by Certified Mail, Return Receipt Requested, to their address of record. For purposes of this paragraph, a bailiff is not considered to be "laid off" merely because his or her monthly schedule contains consecutive days or weeks in which no work is scheduled.

6.08 Before other means are utilized, notices of vacancies and new positions shall be posted by the Employer within the office or department in which the vacancy exists for five (5) days, but the Employer may fill such vacancies and new positions immediately pending final selection of an applicant. In addition, the Employer shall send a copy of the notice of vacancy to the County Director of Human Resources. Any Employee desiring to fill any such posted vacancy or new position shall make application in writing to the Employer within such five (5) day posting period. The Employer reserves the right to refuse the same Employee more than two (2) classification changes in any twelve (12) month period as a result of job posting. Laid off Employees shall be given automatic consideration for any position for which they are qualified for a period of twelve (12) months, or the length of their seniority, whichever is shorter.

6.09 Promotions and the filling of vacancies and new positions shall be made on the basis of knowledge, physical fitness when the nature of the job makes physical fitness an appropriate consideration, training, ability, demonstrated work habits, and efficiency. Where these factors are relatively equal, seniority shall be the determining factor. Time and financial resources permitting, consideration will be given to Employees for the “on the job” training for other positions within the department.

6.10 Employees who are temporarily assigned to positions which are within their departments, but are outside the bargaining unit, shall not forfeit their seniority, provided, that such temporary assignment is no longer than three (3) months or extended for a longer period of time by mutual agreement. If the entry level pay rate for the position to which the Employee is assigned is higher than the Employee’s pre-assignment rate, the Employee while in the temporary assignment shall receive the entry level rate of pay.

ARTICLE SEVEN

WORK DAY, WORK WEEK, HOURS & OVERTIME

7.01 The normal work week for regular Full-time Employees shall consist of forty (40) hours in five (5) consecutive days, Monday through Friday. The normal work week for Part-time Employees will be established by the appropriate supervisor.

7.02 The normal work day for all Employees shall consist of eight hours per day, which includes a paid lunch period and two paid ten (10) minute breaks.

7.03 The normal office hours shall be 8:00 A.M. to 4:30 P.M. or as required by statute or operational requirements. Lunch periods are to be scheduled near the mid-point of the work day and breaks are to be scheduled during the first and second half of the work day, if conditions within Employer's control permit.

7.04 The Official or Department Head in each Department or Office shall establish the scheduled starting and quitting times for specific job classification or divisions within each Department or Office according to statutory and operational requirements.

7.05 The Employer reserves the right to schedule Employees within different job Classifications, Divisions, and Departments on staggered schedules in order to maintain continuous operations whenever the Employer concluded that such actions are necessary or appropriate.

7.06 Employees will be paid overtime pay or compensatory time at the rate of time and one-half for all hours worked in excess of 40 hours worked in work week. The employer reserves the right to direct employees to take compensatory time. In the event the employee due to needs of the office must accumulate time in excess of forty (40) hours the employee may accrue such time and carry over a maximum of 32 hours of into the next calendar year if the employee chooses to carry over any time.

7.07 All Bailiffs are guaranteed four (4) hours pay if they are scheduled or called in to work A.M. shift. All bailiffs are guaranteed four (4) hours pay if they are scheduled or called in to work P.M. shift. If any Bailiff works the A.M. shift and then schedule carries over into P.M. shift that Bailiff would be paid as follows, EXAMPLE: A.M. SHIFT WORKED 8:00 A.M. – 11:15 GUARANTEED 4 HOURS PAY. THEN HAD TO WORK 1 HOUR 30 MINUTES P.M. SHIFT – TOTAL TIME WORKED IS 5 HOURS 30 MINUTES. The same example is used if any Bailiff works in the P.M. shift but gets called in to work for A.M. shift, Bailiff would be guaranteed 4 hours pay for P.M. shift and then any hours worked in the A.M. shift. If prior to reporting for work a Bailiff is notified by the Employer that the schedule has been changed and that the Bailiff is no longer scheduled for work, the guarantee does not apply. It is understood that if the Court House is closed this guarantee does not apply. If any Bailiff works over eight (8) hours per day, an additional $1.00 per hour will be added to their regular wages for each hour over eight (8) that is worked.

7.08 The monthly bailiff schedule will be posted no later than the third Friday of each month at 4:00 p.m. As noted below, in order to accommodate every bailiffs schedule, trading is encouraged and will be accepted by management.

Because of increasing court business and the December, 1998 addition of a new judge in Vermilion County, requests for specific days off will not be accepted. Requests for blocks of time off i.e. time off for a week or more (for purposes of unpaid vacation), received thirty days in advance, will be honored. Additionally, bailiffs may trade days off provided the bailiffs note the trade on the posted master schedule, and provided that the trade does not result in pay at overtime rates, and does not change the bailiff status from that of Part-time Employee. Should a trade be arranged by a bailiff and the second bailiff fails to honor the obligation, the second bailiff, i.e. the bailiff who last assumed responsibility to work the day in question, will be held responsible. In no case shall the Employer be responsible for any inequitable or otherwise inappropriate distribution of work brought about by trades arranged by bailiffs. In the event an emergency occurs preventing a bailiff from covering an assignment or from arranging for coverage by another bailiff, the bailiff shall immediately advise the Court Administrator who will then arrange for coverage.

Work not appearing on the bailiffs' schedules at the time of the monthly assignments, subsequently becoming available for such reasons as sick leave, time off, or previously unscheduled hearings, will be rotated among the bailiffs beginning with the most senior. Deviations from this preference may occur depending upon the advance notice to the Employer of the need for such work and the availability of the bailiffs to report for such work. The sole remedy for a violation of this paragraph shall be to provide the bailiff with an appropriate preference for future assignments.

7.09 A probation officer shall receive one (1) day comp time for each week on call. The day shall be taken on a mutually agreeable day. In addition to the above an officer(s) "on call" who are designated to transport juveniles to or from a detention facility after normal working hours shall receive one and one half (1.5) hours compensatory time off for every hour actually transporting juveniles. The Employer retains the discretion to terminate or modify this program or to transfer such transportation duties to persons other than probation officers.

7.10 Any Employee in the office of the Circuit Clerk that is required to work on an evening that is scheduled to work on the Court Calendar and does work will receive a minimum (1) one hour of comp time. Any employee that works more than one half hour will receive comp time at the rate of time and one half.

7.11 Any Employee in the office of the Circuit Clerk that is required to work on an evening that is scheduled to work on the Court Calendar and does work will be guaranteed one (1) hour of comp time. Time exceeding an 8-hour work day refer to Article 7.06.

ARTICLE EIGHT

BULLETIN BOARDS

8.01 The Employer will designate areas on or for Bulletin Boards for posting of notices signed by an Official of the Union and directed to Employees represented by the Union.

ARTICLE NINE

NO DISCRIMINATION

9.01 Neither the Employer nor the Union shall discriminate against any Employee on account of race, creed, color, religion, age, national origin, ancestry, sex, marital status, disability unrelated to the ability to perform, nor because of participation or non-participation in lawful Union activity.

ARTICLE TEN

UNION BUSINESS, DUES, FAIR SHARE, & DEDUCTIONS

This article shall only apply where allowed under State and Federal law.

10.01 Duly authorized non-Employee representatives of the Union on the basis of prior arrangements made with the Employee representative in charge of the area involved will, where feasible and proper, be allowed to enter upon the Employer's premises when necessary for purposes of administration of this Agreement. Such activities will be conducted without interruption or interference with the Employer's operations.

10.01(a): Whenever new Employees are hired in any bargaining unit of this Agreement and the Employee is a part of the bargaining unit, the Employee shall be granted time off to attend a 30 minute orientation with a union representative. The Employer shall establish a regular time each month for all new Employees meeting the requirements of this section to be made available to the Union at a mutually agreed upon place. The Union Representative will not be paid by the Employer or the County for this orientation period.

10.02 There will be no Union activity or business conducted by Employees during their working hours, unless a duly authorized Union Official or Committeeman or Steward employed by the Employer is relieved of his duties to engage in or conduct business which cannot be performed outside working hours. Such Employee shall advise his or her immediate supervisor of such circumstances and request to be relieved of his or her duties for the period necessary to handle the matter. Permission shall be granted unless the supervisor determines that the Employee cannot be released because of the Employer's operational requirements.

10.03 The Union will notify the Employer in writing of the designation of any Employees as Union Representatives and of any changes in such designations.

10.04 The Employer shall deduct monthly from the pay of such bargaining unit Employee from whom it has received a written authorization to do so the amount certified by the Union to be the amount required for payment of monthly membership dues and uniform initiation fees, and remit the sums deducted to the Union within twenty (20) working days after the deductions are made.

10.05 All bargaining unit Employees who are not members of the Union and who do not become members of the Union within thirty (30) days of the effective date of the Agreement or of their employment, whichever is the later, and continuing during the term of this Agreement, so long thereafter as they are not member of the Union, shall pay to the Union each month their fair share of the costs of services rendered by the Union which are chargeable to non-members under applicable law, as certified by the union to the Employer, and which may not exceed the monthly dues uniformly required of members of the Union. Upon receipt of said certification, the Employer shall deduct monthly and remit to the Union within twenty (20) working days thereafter the required fair share contribution from the pay of any Employee who has not authorized the deduction of Union dues pursuant to 10.04, above.

10.06 The Employer shall be relieved from making the above deductions upon termination of employment, transfer from the bargaining unit, revocation of the authorization; and, the Employer shall not be obligated to deduct dues from an Employee's pay during any month in which the Employee's pay is less than the amount to be deducted.

10.07 The only obligation of the Employer is to deduct and remit the certified amounts to the Union. The Employer shall bear no obligation or liability to the Union or any Employee for any mistakes made in compliance with said obligation, the Union shall indemnify, defend, and hold harmless the Employer, its Officers, Agents, and Employees from and against any and all claims, demands, actions, complaints, suits, or any other forms of liability that shall arise out of or by reason of any action by the Employer for the purposes of complying with the Article Ten or in reliance upon any list, form, notice, certification, or assignment furnished, pursuant to the provisions hereof.

10.08 All Employees shall be members in good standing or pay fair share, in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement.

a) The Union shall submit to the Employer an affidavit which specifies the amount constituting each Employee's fair share contribution, and which describes the rationale and method by which the fair share contribution was determined, including a list of expenditures which were included and excluded in determining the fair share contribution.
