EEO Utilization Report

Organization Information

Name: COUNTY OF VERMILION

City: Danville

State: IL

Zip: 61832

Type: County/Municipal Government

Section 1: EEO Policy Statement

Policy Statement:

It is the policy of Vermilion County that all persons are entitled to equal employment opportunities and, therefore, Vermilion County is an affirmative action/ equal opportunity employer. More specifically, there shall be no discrimination because of race, creed, color, national origin, religion, ancestry, marital status, age, sex, or physical or mental disability; it is required that the employee or applicant is qualified and meets the physical requirements necessary for the job. In all cases only qualified individuals shall be hired and the predetermined standards shall not be lowered in any way for employment or promotion; however, reasonable accommodations shall be made for persons with disabilities.

The responsibility for insuring that all phases of personnel administration are in accord with this policy has been assigned to the management (department heads, officeholders, agency administrators) of Vermilion County. It is managements duty to apply this policy to all employees or applicants for employment according to the personnel guidelines and the Affirmative Action Program as adopted. Employees, as applicants for employment, when classified by the above noted criteria, who are members of a class disproportionately represented in the Countys work force, are referred to herein as minority employees or minorities.

Section 5: Narrative Interpretation of Data

The utilization analysis has been reviewed comparing Vermilion Countys workforce to the relevant labor market and noted the following:

- 1. White males were significantly under-represented in the job category of Administrative Support (-21%).
- 2. White females were under-represented in the job category of Sworn Protective Services category. The under-representation was (-20%).
- 3. White females were under-represented in the job category of Non-Sworn Protective Services category. The under-representation was (-62%).

Section 6: Objectives and Steps

- 1. 1. To encourage white males to apply for vacancies in the Administrative Services category.
 - a. The Human Resources Department will enhance recruitment efforts to target white males in these categories by attending local job fairs and advertising vacancies on the following websites: Vermilion County, Danville Area Community College, the Illinois Department of Employment Security Job Link, Vermilion Advantage Job Board, and other practicable options.
 - b. The HRD will review the applicant pool for all vacancies in these job categories in the last fiscal year to determine whether white male applicants were under-represented.
 - c. The HRD will conduct a workforce analysis to determine which county offices may be underutilizing white males in this category.
 - d. The Human Resources Department will conduct interviews with department heads in the departments determined to have possibly underutilized white males in these categories to determine if the selection process had any impact on screening out white male applicants.

2. 2. To encourage white females to apply for vacancies in the Protective Services, both sworn and non-sworn categories

- a. The Human Resources Department will review the applicant pool for all vacancies in these job categories in the last fiscal year to determine whether white female applicants were under-represented.
- b. The Human Resources Department will conduct a workforce analysis to determine which County offices may be underutilizing white females in these categories.
- c. The Human Resources Department will conduct interviews with department heads in the departments determined to have possibly underutilized white females in these categories to determine if the selection process had any impact on screening out white female applicants.
- d. The Human Resources Department will enhance recruitment efforts to target white females in these categories by attending local job fairs and advertising vacancies on the following websites: Vermilion County, Danville Area Community College, the Illinois Department of Employment Security Job Link, Vermilion Advantage Job Board, and other practicable options.
